INFO

The Noise Next Door are one of U.K.'s leading comedy troupes and in the last three years, they have taken the comedy world by storm, leaving audiences everywhere in awe of their lightning fast wit and totally original comedic talents.

The Noise Next Door are Tom Houghton, Charlie Granville, Matt Grant, Tom Livingstone and Sam Pacelli. They have been performing their own distinctive brand of off-the-cuff comedy together since 2005. With no rehearsal or script, between them they have an uncanny knack of transforming audience suggestions into fantastically funny scenes and songs in the blink of an eye with a perfect blend of ludicrous characters, witty one-liners, epic stories, and explosive physicality.

The Noise Next Door are the only group who play the mainstream comedy circuit, regularly headlining nights for Highlight, The Comedy Club and Jongleurs all over the country. They are three time veterans of the Edinburgh Fringe Festival and run their own comedy club in their hometown, Brighton. The Noise Next Door have appeared alongside some of the biggest names in contemporary comedy including Harry Hill, Ed Byrne, Rufus Hound, and Alistair McGowen and were the first international group to have performed at FRACAS improvisation festival in Los Angeles.

Unstoppably funny and uniquely talented, they are, without a doubt, one of the most exciting acts in comedy today.
